

Susan K. Tomita has practiced law since 1979. She received her B.A. at Stanford University and her J.D. at the University of Santa Clara Law School where she graduated Magna Cum Laude, and is admitted to practice in New Mexico and California. Ms. Tomita is a former Chairperson of the Elder Law Section of the New Mexico State Bar Association and is a member of the Special Needs Alliance, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the New Mexico Estate Planning Council. She is a co-author of the "Handbook for Guardians and Conservators: A Practical Guide to New Mexico Law", published by the New Mexico Attorney General's Office. She has been designated as "Lawyer of the Year" by Best Lawyers in America both in the practice fields of "Trusts and Estates" and "Elderlaw" and is listed Martindale-Hubbell's Directory of Preeminent Attorneys.

In addition to her Estate Planning and Disabilities Law practice, Ms. Tomita has served Chairperson of the Board of Directors of CHI St. Joseph's Children, and has served on the Boards of Directors of the Legal Aid Society of Albuquerque and Indian Pueblo Legal Services. She is a past Chairperson of the Indian Law Section of the State Bar of New Mexico. With her law partner, she co-founded Crossroads for Women, a program that provides assistance to homeless women coming out of jail or prison. She is a recipient of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe's St. Francis award and the St. Bernadette Institute's Mother Teresa award.